THE HOOGHLY DOCKING AND ENGINEERING COMPANY LIMITED (ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER OF UNDERTAKINGS) ACT, 1984

ACT NO. 55 OF 1984

[23rd August, 1984.]

An Act to provide for the acquisition and transfer of the undertakings of the Hooghly Docking and Engineering Company Limited with a view to securing the better utilisation of the available infrastructure thereof, to modernise and increase the capacity for ship building and ship repairing so as to reduce the import of ships, vessels and craft and to augment the production of grey iron, non-ferrous and alloy castings by the said undertakings so as to subserve the interests of the general public by ensuring the continued supply of the said articles which are essential to the needs of the economy of the country, and for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto.

WHEREAS the Hooghly Docking and Engineering Company Limited is, through its undertakings, engaged in shipbuilding, ship repairing, general engineering and other activities;

AND WHEREAS the Company has the capacity and infrastructure to effect an increase in the country's capacity to manufacture ships and other vessels and craft;

AND WHEREAS an increase in the production of such vessels and craft would reduce the need of the country to make imports of such vessels and craft and would thereby enable the country to save foreign exchange;

AND WHEREAS the Company is also engaged in the production of grey iron, non-ferrous and alloy castings which are essential to the needs of the economy of the country;

AND WHEREAS the Company had been suffering heavy losses for a number of years mainly due to lack of fresh investment and modernisation;

AND WHEREAS further investment of substantial sums of money is needed to run and modernise the undertakings of the Company: but in view of the serious adverse financial condition of the Company it is not in a position to secure such investment;

AND WHEREAS the liquidation of the Company, by reason of its inability to pay its debts, would prejudicially affect the country's capacity to manufacture such ships, vessels and craft and would thereby be prejudicial to the public interest;

AND WHEREAS in view of the position aforesaid it is necessary to acquire the undertaking of the said Company to enable the Central Government to make necessary investments for securing the proper utilisation of the available facilities for shipbuilding and ship repairing (including the production of vessels and craft) and also for the production of grey iron, non-ferrous and alloy castings which are essential to the needs of the economy of the country;

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

4. General effect of vesting.—(1) The undertakings of the Company shall be deemed to include all assets, rights, lease-holds, powers, authorities and privileges, and all property, movable and immovable, including lands, buildings, workshops, stores, instruments, machinery and equipment, cash balances, cash on hand, reserve funds, investments, book debts and all other rights and interests in, or arising out of, such property as were immediately before the appointed day in the ownership, possession, power or control of the Company, whether within or outside India, and all books of account, registers and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
