CHAPTER VI

INSPECTION AND MANAGEMENT OF LOCAL AIDS TO NAVIGATION

14. Power to inspect local aids to navigation.— (1) The Central Government may authorise any officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 4 in writing, to enter upon at any time and inspect any local aid to navigation and make such inquiries in respect thereof or of the management thereof as such officer thinks fit.

(2) Every person having the charge of, or concerned in the management of, any local aid to navigation shall furnish to the officer authorised under sub-section (1) to inspect such aid to navigation, all such information as the officer may require.

(3) Every local authority shall furnish to the Central Government all such returns and other information in respect of the aids to navigation under its supervision and management, or of any of them, as the Central Government may require.

15. Control of local aids to navigation by Central Government.— (1) If the Central Government is satisfied, after an inspection under section 14 or such other inquiry, that a direction under this sub-section is necessary or expedient for the safety, or otherwise, in the interests of vessels, it may direct any local authority—

(a) to remove or discontinue or to refrain from moving or discontinuing any aid to navigation under its superintendence and management or to make or refrain from making any variation in the character or mode of use of any such aid to navigation; or

(b) to erect, place or maintain, or to refrain from erecting, placing or maintaining any aid to navigation within the local limits within which the local authority exercises its powers.

(2) A local authority shall not erect, place, remove or discontinue any aid to navigation or vary the character or mode of use of any aid to navigation, unless it has given to the Central Government at least one month's notice in writing of its intention so to do:

Provided that, in cases of emergency, a local authority may take such action as it deems necessary and shall give immediate notice of the same to the Central Government and, so far as is possible, to all vessels approaching or in the vicinity of such aid to navigation.

(3) If any local authority—

(a) fails to comply with any direction made under sub-section (1); or

(b) fails to exercise or perform, or exercises or performs in an improper, inefficient or unsuitable manner, any power or duty relating to the superintendence or management of any aid to navigation conferred or imposed upon it by or under any law for the time being in force; or

(c) fails to make adequate financial provision for the performance of any such duty, the Central Government may, by order in writing, require such local authority to comply with the direction, or to make arrangements to the satisfaction of that Government for the proper exercise of the power or performance of the duty, or to make financial provision to the satisfaction of that Government for the performance of the duty, as the case may be, within such period as it may specify.

(4) If the local authority fails to comply with an order made under sub-section (3) within the specified period or within such further time as the Central Government may allow, the Central Government may exercise the power or perform the duty or make the requisite financial provision, as the case may be, and the local authority shall be liable to reimburse to the Central Government any expenditure incurred by it in so doing.

16. Management of local aids to navigation by Central Government.— The Central Government may, at the request of a local authority, undertake the superintendence and management of any local aids to navigation on its behalf, and the local authority shall pay to the Central Government such sums to defray the cost of superintendence and management, as may be agreed.

CHAPTER VII

OBSTRUCTION TO FUNCTIONING OF AIDS TO NAVIGATION

17. Power of Central Government to remove or alter obstructions to aids to navigation.— (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify restrictions on activities that interfere with or obstruct the operation of any aid to navigation within the specified distance of such aid to navigation.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, where the functioning of any aid to navigation or vessel traffic service is being obstructed, directly or indirectly, the Central Government may, if it deems fit, issue such directions as may be necessary for the removal or alteration of such obstruction.

CHAPTER VIII

TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION

18. Power of Central Government to train and certify operators of aids to navigation and vessel traffic services.—(1) No person shall be allowed to operate or work on, including any ancillary activities as may be prescribed, any aid to navigation in any place unless he holds a valid training certificate certifying that such person has been trained in the operation of such aid to navigation.

(2) No person shall be allowed to operate or work on, including any ancillary activities as may be prescribed, a vessel traffic service in any place unless he holds a valid training certificate certifying that such person has been trained in the operation of vessel traffic services.

(3) A certificate of training issued under this Act shall be valid and effective throughout the territory of India.

19. Certification.—A certificate mentioned in sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 18 shall be issued by an accredited training organisation referred to in section 20, in such form, subject to such conditions and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

20. Accreditation of training organisations.—(1) The Central Government shall accredit training organisations for imparting training to, or conduct assessments of, persons in the operation of aids to navigation and vessel traffic services.

(2) The Central Government shall accredit such training organisations which meet the criteria, as may be prescribed, for imparting training to trainees or conduct assessment of persons in the operation of aids to navigation and vessel traffic services.

CHAPTER IX

MARKING OF WRECKS

21. Marking of wrecks.—The Central Government may, if considers necessary, give directions to any officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 4 to mark any wreck in such manner as may be prescribed.

22. Reimbursement for marking wrecks.—The cost for marking the wreck shall be borne by or recovered from the owner or the operator of such vessel in such manner as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER X

DEVELOPMENT OF HERITAGE LIGHTHOUSES

23. Power of Central Government to designate any aid to navigation as heritage lighthouse.— (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, designate any aid to navigation under its control as a heritage lighthouse.

(2) The Central Government shall develop the heritage lighthouses designated under sub-section (1), in addition to their function as aids to navigation or otherwise, for educational, cultural and tourism purposes, in such manner as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XI

MARINE AIDS TO NAVIGATION DUES

24. Levy and collection of marine aids to navigation dues.—(1) There shall be levied and collected the marine aids to navigation dues, at such rates, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify from time to time.

(2) The marine aids to navigation dues levied under sub-section (1) shall be collected by the proper officer in respect of every ship arriving at or departing from any port in India, from such person, in such manner and at such time, as may be prescribed.

(3) The proceeds of the marine aids to navigation dues collected shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) Every owner causing any ship to arrive at or depart from any port in India shall, self-assessing its liability to pay dues, file a return before the proper officer in such form and manner, as may be prescribed.

25. Utilisation of marine aids to navigation dues.—The marine aids to navigation dues levied under this Act shall be utilised for fulfilling the obligations and carrying out the purposes of this Act.

26. Receipts relating to marine aids to navigation dues and their verification.—(1) The owner shall credit the marine aids to navigation dues into the account of the Central Government in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The payment of marine aids to navigation dues shall be verified by the proper officer in respect of.—

(a) the port at which the marine aids to navigation dues has been paid;

(b) the amount of the payment;

(c) the date on which the marine aids to navigation dues became payable; and

(d) the name, tonnage and other proper description of the ship in respect of which the payment is made, for the purpose of granting clearance.

27. Assessment of marine aids to navigation dues and ascertainment of tonnage.—(1) The proper officer to whom the return has been furnished under sub-section (4) of section 24 shall, after making or causing to be made such inquiry as he thinks fit and after satisfying himself that the particulars stated in the return are correct, by order, assess the amount of marine aids to navigation dues payable by the owner or the master of the ship.

(2) If the return has not been furnished to the proper officer under sub-section (4) of section 24, he shall, after making or causing to be made such inquiry as he thinks fit, by order, assess the amount of marine aids to navigation dues payable by the owner or the master of the ship.

(3) For the purposes of levy of marine aids to navigation dues, the tonnage of a ship or sailing vessel shall be reckoned as under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (44 of 1958), for such dues payable on a ship's tonnage including the tonnage of any space added under the said Act to the tonnage of ships by reason of such space being utilised for carrying cargo.

(4) In order to ascertain the tonnage of any ship for the purpose of levying marine aids to navigation dues, the proper officer may, if he deems it fit, require the production of any documents, the appearance of any person and the inspection of any vessel, in such manner as may be prescribed.

28. Recovery of marine aids to navigation dues.—(1) If the owner of any ship refuses or neglects to pay the amount of marine aids to navigation dues payable under this Act in respect of the ship, the proper officer may seize the ship along with its equipment or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount of the marine aids to navigation dues, together with the costs of the seizure and detention is paid.

(2) If any part of such marine aids to navigation dues remains unpaid after the expiry of thirty days following the date of the seizure, the proper officer may cause the ship or other thing seized to be sold, and with the proceeds of the sale may satisfy the marine aids to navigation dues remaining unpaid, together with the costs of the sale and shall repay the surplus, if any, to the person by whom the same were payable.

29. Refusal of port clearance.—The officer whose duty it is to grant a port clearance for any ship shall not grant the port clearance until the amount of marine aids to navigation dues payable in respect of the ship under this Act and of any fines imposed thereunder has been paid, or until security for the payment thereof has been given to his satisfaction.

30. Determination of disputes as to liability for payment.—If any dispute arises as to whether marine aids to navigation dues, expenses or costs are payable in respect of any ship under this Act or as to the amount of such dues, expenses or costs, such dispute shall, on an application made in this behalf by either of the disputing parties, be heard and determined by a civil court having jurisdiction at the place where the dispute arose.

31. Marine aids to navigation dues payable at one port recoverable at another.—(1) If the master of any ship in respect of which marine aids to navigation dues is payable at any port causes the ship to leave such port without having paid such dues, the proper officer at that port may, by writing, require the proper officer at any other port in India to which the ship may proceed, to recover the marine aids to navigation dues remaining unpaid.

(2) Any proper officer to whom such a requisition is directed, shall proceed to levy such sum as if it were payable under this Act at the port at which he is the proper officer, and a certificate by the proper officer at the port at which the marine aids to navigation dues first became payable, stating the amount payable, shall be sufficient proof in any proceeding under this Act that such amount is payable.

32. Exemption.—The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt.—

(a) any ship belonging to the Central Government or any State Government, which is not carrying cargo or passengers for freight or fares; or

(b) any other ship, or classes of ships or ships performing specified voyages, from the payment of marine aids to navigation dues either wholly or to such extent as may be specified in that notification.

33. Refund of excess payments.—Where the marine aids to navigation dues has been paid in respect of any ship in excess of the amount payable under this Act, no claim to refund of such excess payment shall be admissible, unless it is made within six months from the date of such payment.

34. Fees.—The fees to be charged for providing assistance to ships for rendering special services to vessels shall be at such rates as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XII

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

35. Receipt and expenditure.—The Central Government shall cause to be maintained a separate account of all amounts received by way of marine aids to navigation dues, expenses, costs and fines under this Act and of all expenditure incurred for the purposes of this Act, and shall cause such account to be laid before the Central Advisory Committee, as soon as possible after the close of each financial year.

36. Annual report.—(1) The Central Government shall cause to be laid before the Central Advisory Committee before the close of each financial year a statement of the estimated receipts under, and expenditure for the purposes of this Act, during the forthcoming year.

(2) The statement of estimated receipts and expenditure shall be prepared in consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India, in such manner as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XIII

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

37. Intentionally obstructing aids to navigation or vessel traffic services.—(1) Whoever, intentionally commits any act or omits to do any act, which results in obstruction of, or reduction in, or limitation of, the effectiveness of, any aid to navigation or vessel traffic service, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend up to six months or with fine which may extend up to one lakh rupees, or with both.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no person shall be liable for punishment, if that.—

(b) such person took all reasonable steps to avoid the obstruction, reduction or limitation.

38. Negligently obstructing aids to navigation or vessel traffic services.—(1) Whoever, negligently commits any act or omits to do any act, which results in obstruction of, or reduction in, or limitation of, the effectiveness of, any aid to navigation or vessel traffic service, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend up to three months or with fine which may extend up to fifty thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no person shall be liable for punishment, if that.—

(a) act or omission was necessary to save a life or a vessel; and

(b) such person took all reasonable steps to avoid the obstruction, reduction or limitation.

39. Intentionally destroying or damaging aids to navigation or vessel traffic services.—(1) Whoever, intentionally commits any act or omits to do any act, which results in damage to or destruction of any aid to navigation or vessel traffic service, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend up to twelve months or with fine which may extend up to five lakh rupees, or with both.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no person shall be liable for punishment, if that—

(a) act or omission was necessary to save a life or a vessel; and

(b) such person took all reasonable steps to avoid the damage or destruction.

40. Negligently destroying or damaging aids to navigation or vessel traffic services.—(1) Whoever, negligently commits any act or omits to do any act, which results in damage to or destruction of any aid to navigation or vessel traffic service, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend up to six months or with fine which may extend up to one lakh rupees, or with both.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no person shall be liable for punishment, if that—

(a) act or omission was necessary to save a life or a vessel; and

(b) such person took all reasonable steps to avoid the damage or destruction.

41. Causing damage to heritage lighthouse.—(1) Whoever, commits any act or omits to do any act, which results in damage to or destruction of any heritage lighthouse, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend up to six months or with fine which may extend up to one lakh rupees, or with both.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no person shall be liable for punishment, if that.—

(a) act or omission was necessary to save a life or a vessel; and

(b) such person took all reasonable steps to avoid the destruction, fouling, damage, reduction or limitation.

42. Evading payment of marine aids to navigation dues.—Every owner or master of a ship, who evades or attempts to evade the payment of marine aids to navigation dues, expenses or costs payable in respect of the ship under this Act, shall be liable for fine, which may extend up to five times the amount of the sum so payable.

43. Non-compliance with directions of vessel traffic service provider.—Every owner or master of a ship, who fails to comply with any direction issued by a vessel traffic service provider relating to a vessel traffic service under this Act, shall be liable to fine which may extend up to one lakh rupees.

44. Cognizance of offences.—(1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act, except upon a complaint in writing made by any officer authorised in this behalf by the Central Government.

(2) No court inferior to that of a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act.

45. Place of trial and jurisdiction of court.—Whoever, commits any offence under this Act or any rules made thereunder, may ordinarily be inquired into and tried by a court within whose local jurisdiction—

(a) such offence was committed; or

(b) such person may be found; or

- (c) in any court which the Central Government may, by notification, direct in this behalf; or
- (d) in any court in which he might be tried under any other law for time being in force.

CHAPTER XIV

MISCELLANEOUS

46. Power of Central Government to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, after previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) duties of the Director General under section 5;
- (b) procedure and conduct of business of Central Advisory Committee and sub-committees constituted under sub-section (5) of section 6;
- (c) manner of appointment of the Competent Authority under sub-section (2) and its functions under sub-section (3), of section 12;
